

the drinks business is proud to present the first ever

Fortified Masters

A competition that will find and reward the finest fortified wines on the world stage

The competition will be split into five main categories: Port, Red Fortified, Sherry, Solera-aged Fortified and Others. A panel of leading industry specialists, including on- and off-trade buyers, restaurateurs, MWs, and category experts will judge the wines submitted in a blind tasting, to discover the best in each of the categories. Each wine will be evaluated on its own merit awarding it a bronze, silver, gold or master medal. With no limit on the number of medals in any given category, no two wines will be vying for the top slot against each other.
